

MEET KATIE LUTHER

Presentation and Reenactment by Barbara Kay

Join us for a captivating presentation on Katie Luther, a remarkable figure in history! Former nun, 16th-century entrepreneur, and wife of Martin Luther, Katie played a crucial role in the Protestant Reformation. Barbara Kay, a Glen Carbon resident and former history teacher, will bring Katie Luther to life through a first-person costumed portrayal. This engaging event will allow you to discover the woman behind the reformation as she shares her story and answers questions directly from the perspective of Katie Luther herself. Don't miss this unique opportunity to learn about the influential life of Katie Luther!
