DEVOTION FOR THE NEW YEAR

Grounded in God's faithfulness

Reprinted from January 2024, "Living Lutheran" but still applicable for today.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega,' says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty" (Revelation 1:8).

When the new year rolls in, I'm all for making plans and dreaming dreams. Goal-making or coming up with a word of the year brings me joy. Reflecting on where I've been and where I'd like to go exhilarates me. New planners and pens are a highlight. Together with my kids, I like to think about the year ahead and talk about what's to come—vacations or new extracurricular activities, visits from friends, places we'd like to explore, connecting with neighbors, and serving in our community. Yet, as much as I love a good planning and brainstorming session, the new year is ripe for looking back and giving thanks.

In the Midwest, where I live, January is bare and gray. The earth can be covered in snow and the temperatures are frigid. When I look out our front window to the neighborhood park, I'm flooded with memories of play and outside time with friends. I remember the greener and warmer days. But I can also see the beauty of what's right in front of me: God's faithfulness through the seasons.

This month, look back and reflect on God's faithfulness, both in times of joy, abiding in God's love, and in times of need, crying out in prayer. Remember the meals shared around the table and say a prayer of thanks for daily bread. Reflect on attending worship this year and how you've grown in faith and understanding. Rejoice in your health and give thanks for the strength of your body. Lament the losses in your life and in the world and pray for peace. Light a candle for the world in which we live and pray fervently for God's kingdom to come.

Celebrate the new year but also celebrate the God who is, who was and who is to come—the God who walks with you throughout your days.

- Take a New Year's walk as a family. Notice the landscape. Give thanks for the fresh air and for everything God has provided.
- Decorate your table with greenery, celebrating the God of all creation and the renewing of both ourselves and nature.
- Read The Worried Wisemen (Morehouse Publishing, 2022); talk about the gifts of the wise men and how you can share your time and resources with others.

Grab Christmas cards you've received and use them to pray for the people in your life. Over a meal or before you head out the door, pick a card and pray:

Dear God, thank you for these friends whom we love and who love us. May they have joy, peace and health this year. May your love surround them and bring us together. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

JANUARY GIVING EMPHASIS: SOUPER BOWL OF CARING - COUGAR CUPBOARD

Cougar Cupboard Food & Essentials Pantry

The Cougar Cupboard is a non-profit food pantry located at SIUE serving students, faculty, and staff members. The Cougar Cupboard's food and toiletry items are supported entirely through donations.

The mission is to fight food insecurity and hunger on the SIUE campus, create connections within our community, and to support our clients through empowerment and self-determination. They offer clients an individualized and dignified shopping experience with convenience and anonymity. This allows students, faculty, and staff members to have equitable access to food and supportive services.

37% of students experiences limited or uncertain availability of nutritionally adequate and safe food, or the ability to acquire such food in a socially acceptable manner in the prior 30 days.

37% of students experiences one or more challenges that prevented them from having a safe, affordable, and consistent place to live in the previous year.

52% of students experienced at least one of the following: food insecurity, housing insecurity, or homelessness.

The Cougar Cupboard is located in Room 0012 of the Morris University Center on SIUE campus.

Contributions can be made by check (please note "Cougar Cupboard" in the memo line), or by using your smart phone and following the QR code which takes you to the OLLC giving page, select "Monthly Giving Emphasis" to make a donation.

Thank you for your generosity and support!

THE CALL PROCESS: DISCOVER & INVITE

The Discovery and Invite Committee has met monthly this fall to complete the Ministry Site Profile (MSP). We've compiled research and input from the congregation to create what we hope is a thorough reflection of the OLLC congregation and what qualities, strengths, and challenges we'd like any pastor to know about us during the call process. Our next step will be to present this information to the congregation in January for additional thoughts and input before we can continue to process.

Please review the poster boards posted in the hospitality area of the church and use the sticky notes or let one of the committee members know if you have questions or additional thoughts to expand on what we've posted there. The team appreciates feedback and encourages input from congregation members as they compile the MSP. Team members include: Deb Ackerman, Nate & Mo Johnson, Erick Larson, Jodie Nehrt, Karen Schneider, and Pastor Mauricio.

OLLC serves SOS January 13th

Assistance with preparation and serving the meal will be needed in January. Signup sheets will be available in the narthex.

Donations to support OLLC S.O.S. can be given via check, cash, or note "S.O.S." in the memo line. If you have any questions contact Gail Jorgenson or Julie Preston.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

As we enter a new year, it's a beautiful opportunity for reflection. We can celebrate our achievements, honor the goals we've reached, and recognize those we still aim to conquer. During January, many people carve out time to envision their hopes for the year ahead. While it's a good thing to create a blueprint for all the things we want to achieve, let us not forget the old saying, "We make plans, and God laughs." As we create our plan for the upcoming year, a wise person leaves the door open to hear from The One who directs our steps.

During the December council meeting we discussed the accomplishments for the previous month and began planning for the new year at Our Lord's.

- Local benevolence funds for 4th quarter ($381) were allocated to the International Institute in STL
- discussed accomplishments since November and highlighted the upcoming Advent and Christmas events;
- received updates from the Ministry Support Team, and the Discover & Invite Team;
- discussed the acceptance of Pastor Stephanie Doeschot as Interim Pastor beginning January 5, following Pastor Mauricio's departure. Pastor Doeschot will serve Our Lord's part time; she will lead worship on both Saturday and Sunday and work approximately two additional days.
- made arrangements to have Pastor Amy Ziettlow from the synod office preach on February 20 & 21 and address any questions congregation members may have regarding the call process.

As we plan for the new year, let us do as Proverbs 3:5-6 encourages us to do,

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding but in all your ways acknowledge him and he will direct your paths."

Yours in Christ,
Karen Cummings-Larson
